ZING METHOD

Abundance Statements

RUTH ANNE WOOD

Read and listen to these ZING METHOD abundance statements by Ruth

Anne Wood to feel the rush of positive energy flow within you. There's unimaginable power when you read them out loud. Money/ abundance affirmations were transformed into ZING statements. What's the difference? Affirmations are I AM statements which our inner critic can argue with or trigger mental and emotional blocks or painful memories. What's the ZING Statement formula?

They are written in past tense and third person so your inner critic thinks it already happened! We feel all the positive flow of being mental, emotionally and physically aligned without the Inner Critic comparing it to your past and perceived limitations. I also removed "fixing words" that depending on the individual may judge, block, slow down and put extra steps in the way of getting our desired results. The ZING METHOD reduces friction and increases flow by only communicating what feels good. I call it my STOP and Go method. We STOP the complaining and the negative conversations with ourselves and others. When those things are STOPPED then it's time to GO focus on feel good ZING statements.

Ruth Anne Wood scientifically created the ZING METHOD to bypass the inner critic by "tricking" the subconscious to believe it has already happened. This creates a ZING!/ mental and emotional compatible focus! It's a way of test driving the future and the ZING is energetic proof that we are mentally, emotionally and physically aligned with that decision in that ZING moment.

Read these out loud daily and every time you want to be in the feel good zone. I invite you to make a recording on your phone, computer or other electronic devices of YOU saying these ZING statements. Be sure to record with high vibrational music in the background. Google “money, abundance hertz” and select a piece of music that supports your daily listening and wealth consciousness activation. Often I listen to 777 and 888 hertz to start my day or play as I’m writing and meditating.

DISCLAIMER: These ZING statements aren’t designed to fix anything or anyone. The sole purpose is to help you get into the feel good zone.

ZING is a rush of energy that surges in the body when you get a great spark of inspiration, have an amazing connection, follow your bliss, go with the flow and everything is clicking and connecting in desirable ways!

(If you know someone who needs to feel really, really good share this with them. I created male and female ZING Scripts which you can download and share. /// Ruth Anne Wood

As a teenager Ruth Anne Wood tried affirmations and wondered why life wasn't catching up with her dreams. Then she noticed that a majority of the short stories and notes for screenplays she wrote in 1st through 12th grade about her main characters experiencing awe inspiring adventures and relationships had become her reality! In fact her 9th grade, her English teacher, Steve Lamm dubbed Ruth "The Writer Of Our Lives" when he reported in class that what Ruth wrote in creative writing class came true a couple days later in science lab. Mr. Lamm shared he caught himself about to say the very same scripted words the fictitious teacher had said in Ruth's short story! This was no surprise to her, but it was the first time Ruth was publicly recognized for her prophetic writing.

Over the decades Ruth's stories have manifested into personal trips, vacationing, mentoring, presenting in 20+ countries. Her ZING stories and statement have lead to awards, dream come true relationships, amazing clients, hosting a podcast with over 160+ luminary interviews, speaking on stage with renowned co-panelists, getting published with best selling authors, having awe inspiring projects, producing, writing and directing original plays, being shown in private and group art exhibits, mind blowing synchronicities, unexpected income and resources and most recently being asked to join the board of a national 501C3, charity TwilightWish.org that grants wishes to deserving seniors and making it a nicer place to age.

In the late 1990's ScriptingForSuccess.com was born and over the years she has systematized her brilliantly intuitive one-on-one and group coaching sessions to a whole scientific manifesting process that helped herself and clients manifest what was in their coauthored ZING METHOD SCRIPTS:

- Attract 7 figure legal settlements
- Get suddenly gifted substantial pay raises

- Gifted full college tuition, room and board paid in full
- Medical expenses paid in full
- Helped turn around pre-launches to go on to have record sales
- Suddenly get paid late payments by clients without direct communication
- Have unexpected cooperation from difficult exes
- Have family dynamics and finances suddenly improve
- Have IRS apologize for accounting errors after surprise audit
- Attract ideal romantic and business partners and resources and so much more.
- Have amazing adventures with incredible people near and far.

“Ruth helped me achieve in a couple of months more than most people achieve in a life time.”

The key to Ruth’s ZING METHOD is the specific words that Ruth shows you how to add or eliminate to your written and spoken conversations. They are designed to transcend mental and emotional blocks and speed up the process of achieving financial and relationship goals. This in some cases eliminates years of therapy, legal, financial and relationship challenges and expenses. Results are not typical and the more challenging, out of the ordinary projects or goals, the better!

“Ruth helped me quickly create a bridge in fun and surprising ways from where I was to where I wanted to be when I was in so much financial trouble!”

The ZING METHOD uses the power of story and effective communication to transcend money and relationship blocks and difficult or bizarre situations.

By Ruth hearing and/or reading your mental, emotional and physical blocks in your written and spoken communication, certain patterns will emerge that you can soon learn to recognize as one of her students and stop blocking yourself and others with more laser focused communication.

Shift from friction to flow and victim to victor! No matter how much abundance and fulfillment you have, there is always an opportunity to share, give, be, express, enjoy, celebrate and attract more blessings and abundance for yourselves and others. Take any document and add magnetic properties to it. Documents that have been transformed by the ZING METHOD include but aren't limited to: Marriage vows, rental agreements, business plans, policies, procedures, disclaimers, vision statements, marketing, sales letters, love notes, letters of appreciation, wills, legal documents, instructions, websites, blogs, articles, bios, legacy statements, board meeting minutes and documents, spread sheets, accounting ledgers...

When these ZING statements don't work as fast and easy as you would love them to you are experiencing friction and need to use ZING METHOD tools and resources to clear mental, emotional and physical blocks!
